IntelliCorp and VolunteerMatters Announce Background Screening Integration Alliance

BEACHWOOD, Ohio — (BUSINESS WIRE), September 12, 2018 — Intellicorp Records, Inc., a Verisk (Nasdaq:VRSK) business, and VolunteerMatters announced today an alliance to provide background screening designed for volunteer organizations and their volunteers. The integration between Intellicorp Records, Inc., and VolunteerMatters will offer organizations the ability to onboard new and returning volunteers as quickly as possible while serving to ensure a comprehensive and legally compliant screening that provides the safety and security that organizations require.

This integration should deliver an experience that organizations and their volunteers expect and deserve. That experience is set to include an easy setup process for the organization, with an intuitive and streamlined system for both the volunteer coordinator and volunteer, along with a background screening report that is compliant with applicable law. Preferred pricing will be available for any organizations that use this integration between IntelliCorp and VolunteerMatters.

“Our alliance with VolunteerMatters reaffirms our commitment to providing the products and services volunteer organizations deserve,” stated Todd Carpenter, IntelliCorp president. “It’s essential that these organizations have the ability to quickly and effectively onboard volunteers to provide vital services to the community, while at the same time knowing they’re doing what’s necessary to offer a safe and secure environment for all. We’re happy to provide those background screening services to any volunteer organization.”

“We believe providing a safe environment for volunteers and those they serve is a central requirement to have a truly extraordinary volunteer program,” said Mark Hopwood, VolunteerMatters president. “At VolunteerMatters, we help our clients to promote safety while making it simple for volunteers to engage with the causes they’re passionate about. Our alliance with IntelliCorp has struck this balance perfectly.”
