A Guide to Ban the Box laws at State and County, and City Levels

An overview of laws that may impact private employers

 $Version\ 20-4/2021$  This information is not meant to provide legal advice of any kind. Legal advice should be sought from your attorney or corporate counsel.

California

- Compton, CA
- Los Angeles, CA
- Richmond, CA
- Sacramento, CA
- San Francisco, CA

Colorado

Connecticut (State Law)

- Hartford, CT
- New Haven, CT

Hawaii (State Law)

Illinois (State Law)

• Chicago, IL

Iowa

• Waterloo

Kentucky

• Louisville, KY

Maryland

- Baltimore, MD
- Montgomery County, MD
- Prince George's County, MD

Massachusetts (State Law)

- Boston, MA
- Cambridge, MA
- Worcester, MA

Michigan

- Detroit, MI
- Kalamazoo, MI

Minnesota (State Law)

Missouri

- Columbia, MO
- Kansas City, MO
- St. Louis

New Jersey (State Law)

New York

- Buffalo, NY
- New York City, NY
- Rochester, NY
- Suffolk County, NY
- Syracuse, NY
- Westchester County, NY

New Mexico (State Law)

Oregon (State Law)

• Portland, OR

Pennsylvania

- Philadelphia, PA
- Pittsburgh, PA

Rhode Island (State Law)

St. Louis, MO

Texas

- Austin, TX
- DeSoto,TX

U.S. Virgin Islands

Vermont (State Law)

Washington

- Seattle, WA
- Spokane, WA

Washington, DC

Wisconsin

Madison, WI

States with Ban the Box Restrictions	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Inquire about Criminal History?	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Perform a Background Check?	Are Inquiries and/or Background Checks Permissible Before a Conditional Offer Has Been Made?	Preemption and/or Other Notable Nuance
California (1/2018) Employers Covered: All employers with five or more employees. Assembly Bill 1008	Yes	Yes	No	[The law does not apply to] a position where an employer or agent thereof is required by any state, federal, or local law to conduct criminal background checks for employment purposes or to restrict employment based on criminal history.
Colorado Not yet signed by the Governor Employers covered: 11 or more employees starting on September 1, 2019; "all employers" as of September 1,2021 HB19-1025	No	No	Yes; the law prohibits employers from asking about criminal history on an initial written or electronic application	The law does not apply to a position being offered or advertised if, among other things, federal, state, or local law or regulation states that someone with a specific criminal history cannot work in the position sought.
Connecticut (1/2017) Employers Covered: All employers withone or moreemployees. Public Act No. 16-83	No	No	Yes (employers may inquire into applicants' criminal histories, but such background inquiries must occur after an employment application has been completed, e.g., during an interview)	No employer shall inquire about a prospective employee's prior arrests, criminal charges or convictions on an initial employment application , unless: (1) the employer is required to do so by an applicable state or federal law, or (2) a security or fidelity bond or an equivalent bond is required for the position for which the prospective employee is seeking employment.

States with Ban the Box Restrictions	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Inquire about Criminal History?	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Perform a Background Check?	Are Inquiries and/or Background Checks Permissible Prior to a Conditional Offer Being Made?	Preemption and/or Other Notable Nuance
Hawaii Employers Covered: All employers HRS § 378-2.5	Yes	Yes	No	[The law shall] not apply to employers who are expressly permitted to inquire into an individual's criminal history for employment purposes pursuant to any federal or state law (including employers in the business of insurance). NOTE : Under the law, employers may only consider an employee's conviction record within the most recent 10 years, excluding periods of incarceration. The statute applies to both current and prospective employees.
Illinois Employers Covered: Any person or private entity that has at least 15 employees House Bill 5701	Yes (if the applicant will not be interviewed)	Yes (if the applicant will not be interviewed)	Yes (after an applicant has been determined qualified for the position and has been notified of an impending interview)	<ul> <li>The law does not apply to employers that are required to exclude applicants with certain criminal convictions from employment due to federal or state law.</li> <li>Amendment - SB 1480</li> <li>Unless otherwise legally authorized, an employer may only consider an individual's criminal conviction history if: <ol> <li>"there is a substantial relationship between one or more of the previous criminal offenses and the employment. sought or held" or</li> <li>"the granting or continuation of the employment would involve an unreasonable risk to property or to the safety or welfare of specific individuals or the general public"</li> </ol> </li> <li>In making a determination if there is a "substantial relationship" between the conviction records and the position sought or held, an employer must consider the following factors: <ol> <li>the length of time since the conviction</li> <li>the number of convictions that appear on the conviction record</li> <li>the nature and severity of the conviction and its relationship to the safety and security of others</li> <li>the facts or circumstances surrounding the conviction</li> </ol> </li> </ul>

Version 20 -4/2021

This information is not meant to provide legal advice of any kind. Legal advice should be sought from your attorney or corporate counsel.

				<ul> <li>6) evidence of rehabilitation efforts</li> <li>If an employer intends to make an employment decision that is adverse to an applicant or employee based on a conviction record, the employer must first:</li> <li>o Provide a copy of the records along with a</li> </ul>
				<ul> <li>written notice to the individual that:</li> <li>identifies the disqualifying conviction(s)</li> <li>includes the employer's reasoning for the disqualification</li> <li>explains that the applicant can respond to the notice and submit any evidence challenging the accuracy of the record(s) or submit any evidence of rehabilitation</li> <li>Give the applicant at least five (5) business days to respond to the employer's notice</li> <li>If after considering any response by the applicant the employer still decides not to hire or retain the individual, the employer must provide another written notice informing the candidate of: <ul> <li>the disqualifying conviction(s) and the employer's reasoning for the disqualification</li> <li>any existing procedure for the applicant to challenge the decision or request reconsideration</li> </ul> </li> <li>their right to file a charge of discrimination with the Illinois Department of Human Rights</li> </ul>
Maryland Employers covered: all employers of 15 or more full-time employees effective February 29, 2020. Senate Bill 839	No	No	Yes	<ul> <li>Act does not (1) prohibit an employer from making an inquiry or taking other action that the employers is required to take or is expressly authorized to take by another applicable Federal or State law; or (2) apply to an employer that provides programs, services, or direct care to minors or to vulnerable adults.</li> <li>Act does not pre-empt any local/municipal government bodies from implementing similar legislation within the State.</li> <li>Legislature voted to override Governor veto.</li> </ul>

States with Ban the Box Restrictions	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Inquire about Criminal History?	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Perform a Background Check?	Are Inquiries and/or Background Checks Permissible Prior to a Conditional Offer Being Made?	Preemption and/or Other Notable Nuance
Massachusetts Employers Covered: All employers CORI Act Ban the Box Legislation	No	No	Yes (after initial application form is submitted - but this has been interpreted to mean after an interview)	The legislation contains a narrow exception that permits employers toinquire about an individual's criminal history on a job application if: (1) the applicant is applying for a position for which any federal or state law or regulation creates a mandatory or presumptive disqualification based on a conviction of certain criminal offenses; or (2) the employer is subject to an obligation under any federal or state regulation not to employ persons in one or more positions who have been convicted of certain criminal offenses.
Minnesota Employers Covered: All employers Minn. Stat. § 364.021	Yes (if the applicant will not be interviewed)	Yes (if the applicant will not be interviewed)	Yes (after an applicant is selected for an interview)	The law does not apply t o employers who have a statutory duty to conduct a criminal history background check or otherwise take into consideration a potential employee's criminal history during the hiring process.
New Jersey Employers Covered: Any person or private entity that has at least 15 employees Opportunity to Compete Act	No	No	Yes (after an initial interview has occurred with live contact with applicant - in person, by telephone or videoconference [*includes Internet searches into criminal background history])	The Act allows employers to request criminal history information before the first interview wherethe applicant may be legally precluded from holding the position by virtue of his or her criminal background and where any law, rule or regulation restricts an employer's ability to engage in specified business activities based on the criminal records of its employees.

States with Ban the Box Restrictions	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Inquire about Criminal History?	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Perform a Background Check?	Are Inquiries and/or Background Checks Permissible Prior to a Conditional Offer Being Made?	Preemption and/or Other Notable Nuance
New Mexico Employers Covered: Private employers (public employers were subject to a similar restriction since 2010) Effective July 1, 2019 NM SBN 00096	No	No	Yes; the employer may take into consideration an applicant's conviction after review of the employment application and upon discussion of employment with the applicant.	The new section of the "Criminal Offender Employment Act" prohibits private employers from inquiring about an applicant's arrest or conviction history on an initial employment application (written or electronic). Nothingin the statute prohibits an employer from notifying the public or an applicant that the law or the employer's policy could disqualify an applicant who has a certain criminal history from employment in particular positions with that employer (e.g., within a job posting or during an interview).
Oregon Employers Covered: All employers House Bill 3025	No	No	Yes (after an initial interview is conducted)	Employers must not require an applicant to disclose a criminal conviction on an employment application, prior to an initial interview , or prior tomaking a conditional offer of employment if no interview is conducted. Exceptions are made for positions where federal, state, or local law requires consideration of an applicant's criminal history - the legislation does not apply , and applicants may be required to disclose criminal convictions at any stage in the hiring process.
Rhode Island Employers Covered: All employers employing four or more individuals Fair Employment Practices Act 28-5-7	No	No	Yes (after an initial interview is conducted)	Prior to the first interview, employers are prohibited from posingthe question verbally asto whether a job applicant has ever been arrested, charged with or convicted of any crime. Pre- interview criminal history questions are permissible where an employer is precluded by law from hiring persons with specified criminal records, but the pre-interview question must be narrowly tailored to the potentially disqualifying offenses.

States with Ban the Box Restrictions	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Inquire about Criminal History?	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Perform a Background Check?	Are Inquiries and/or Background Checks Permissible Prior to a Conditional Offer Being Made?	Preemption and/or Other Notable Nuance
Vermont (7/2017) Employers Covered: All employers H.B. 261	No	No	Yes (during an interview or once the applicant has been deemed otherwise qualified for the position)	<ul> <li>An employer may inquire about a prospective employee's criminal history record during an interview or once the prospective employee has been deemed otherwise qualified for the position. An employer may inquire about criminal convictions on an initial employee application form if the following conditions are met:</li> <li>the prospective employee is applyingfor a position for which any federal or State law or regulation creates a mandatory or presumptive disqualification based on a conviction for one or more types of criminal offenses; or</li> <li>the employer or an affiliate of the employer is subject to an obligation imposed by any federal or State law or regulation not to employ an individual, in either one or more positions, who has been convicted of one or more types of criminal offenses; and</li> <li>the questions on the application form are limited to the types of criminal offenses</li> </ul>
Washington, DC Employers Covered: All employers (public and private) with more than 10 employees inD.C.	Yes	Yes	No	<ul> <li>The law expressly excludes:</li> <li>Any facility or employer that provides programs, services, ordirect care to minors or vulnerable adults;</li> <li>Positions where a federal or D.C.law or regulation requires consideration of an applicant's criminal history;</li> <li>Positions designated by the employer as part of a federal or D.C. program designed to encourage employment of those with criminal histories; and the D.C. Courts.</li> </ul>

States with Ban the Box Restrictions	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Inquire about Criminal History?	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Perform a Background Check?	Are Inquiries and/or Background Checks Permissible Prior to a Conditional Offer Being Made?	Preemption and/or Other Notable Nuance
Washington Employers Covered: All employers Fair Chance Act (HB 1298)	No	No	Yes (after it is determined that the applicant meets the basiccriteria for the position without consideration of a criminal record)	<ul> <li>The law does not apply to:</li> <li>Any employer hiring a person who will or may have unsupervised access tochildren under the age of 18 or a vulnerable adult or person as defined elsewhere instate law;</li> <li>Any employer, including a financial institution, who is expressly permitted or required under any federal or state law to inquire into, consider, or rely on information about an applicant's or employee's criminal record for employment purposes;</li> <li>Certain law enforcement or criminal justice agencies;</li> <li>Employers seeking non-employee volunteers; or</li> <li>Any entity required to comply with the rules or regulations of a self-regulatory organization, as defined in section 3(a)(26) of the Securities and Exchange Act.</li> </ul>
U.S. Virgin Islands [11/2018] Employers covered: All employers Act No. 8134	No	No	Yes	The new law prohibits employers from asking an applicantto disclose any information [seemingly at any time in the hiring process and throughout employment] concerning: (i) an arrest or detention that did not result in a conviction; (ii) "a referral to, or participation in, any pretrial or post trial diversion program"; or (iii) "a conviction that has been judicially dismissed or ordered sealed pursuant to law." The law also prohibits employers from seeking any of these categories of information from another source. The law applies to public and private employers of all sizes, except if: • "state orfederal law requires the applicant to be rejected based upon criminal history"; • The job position requires a satisfactory criminal background; • a conviction of one or more specified offenses would disqualify the applicant from obtaining a standard bond that is required of individuals hired for the position; and • "the employment is within a facility that provides programs, services, or direct care to minors or vulnerable adults including the educational system or child care."

Counties/Cities with Ban the Box Restrictions	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Inquire about Criminal History?	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Perform a Background Check?	Are Inquiries and/or Background Checks Permissible Prior to a Conditional Offer Being Made?	Preemption and/or Other Notable Nuance
Austin, TX Employers Covered: All employers employing 15 or more individuals whose primary location in the previous 20 weeks was in the City of Austin ORDINANCE NO. 20160324-019	Yes ("conditional employment offer" means an oral or written offer by an employer to employ an individual in a job, or placement in a staffing agency's staffing pool, that is conditioned solely on the employer's evaluation of the individual's criminal history)	Yes	No	The ordinance excludes from coverage any "job for which a federal, state, or local law disqualifies an individual based on criminal history." NOTE:Specificinformation pertaining to the disqualifying criminal history must be included in the adverse notification letter.
Baltimore, MD Employers Covered: Private employing at least 10 "full-time equivalent employees" in the City of Baltimore Subtitle 15. Fair Criminal-Record Screening Practices	Yes ("conditional offer" means an offer that is conditioned solely on the results of the employer's subsequent inquiring into or gathering information about the applicant's criminal record; or some other contingency expressly communicated to the applicant at the time of the offer)	Yes	No	The ordinance does not apply to any inquiry into an applicant's criminal history that is required orauthorized by another applicable city, federal, or state law or regulation.

Counties/Cities with Ban the Box Restrictions	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Inquire about Criminal History?	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Perform a Background Check?	Are Inquiries and/or Background Checks Permissible Prior to a Conditional Offer Being Made?	Preemption and/or Other Notable Nuance
Buffalo, NY Employers Covered: The City of Buffalo itself, as well as its vendors (including those located outside of the City), and any employer with fifteen or more people located within the City Chapter 54 Ordinance Amendment	No	No	Yes (after completion of an application and initial interview)	Employers are prohibited from asking prospective employees about their criminal conviction history during the application process and prior to the first interview. Employers may ask about convictions or violations if such convictions or violations would pose a bar to attaining employment under New York state or federal law.
Chicago, IL Employers Covered: Private employers that are licensed in Chicago and/or maintain a business facility within city limits and that have fewer than 15 employees Human Rights Ordinance	Yes (if the applicant will not be interviewed)	Yes (if the applicant will n ot be interviewed)	Yes (after an applicant is selected for an interview)	The law does not apply if an employer is required by state or federal law to exclude applicants with certain convictions.
Columbia, MO Employers Covered: All employers Code of Ordinances Chapter 12, Article V, Sec. 12-90	Yes	Yes	No	It is unlawful or an employer to inquire, question or otherwise seek information as to whether an applicant has ever been arrested for, charged with or convicted of any crime until after the applicant has received a conditional offer of employment. There is an exception for employers that are required to exclude applicants with certain criminal convictions from employment due to local, state or federal law or regulation.

Counties/Cities with Ban the Box Restrictions	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Inquire about Criminal History?	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Perform a Background Check?	Are Inquiries and/or Background Checks Permissible Prior to a Conditional Offer Being Made?	Preemption and/or Other Notable Nuance
Kansas City, MO (9/2018) Employers Covered: All employers (public and private) with 6 or more employees) Ordinance 180034	No	No	Yes (after it has been determined that the individual is otherwise qualified for the position and the applicant is interviewed)	The Ordinance does not apply if the employer is required to exclude applicants with criminal convictions due to a local, state or federal law or regulation.
DeSoto, TX (1/1/2022) Employers covered: DeSoto based businesses employing 15 or more employees Fair Chance Employment Policy	No	No	Yes	<ul> <li>Prohibits from asking applicants if they had a criminal history during their initial application for employment</li> <li>Non-profit 501(c). state agencies, and government bodies will be exempt: however the City of DeSoto will be required to comply</li> <li>Some job searches will also be exempt if an individual's criminal history disqualifies them from a specific type of position based on existing federal, state, local laws or mandated insurance or bond requirements.</li> </ul>
Los Angeles, CA (7/2017) Employers Covered: Private employers with 10 or more employees and city contractors Ordinance No. 184652	Yes	Yes	No	Ordinance does not apply when the employer is required bylaw to obtain information regarding a conviction of an applicant; the applicant would be required to possess or use a firearm in the course of his or her employment; an individual who has been conviction of a crime is prohibited bylaw from holding the position sought by the applicant, regardless of whether that conviction has been expunged, judicially ordered sealed, statutorily eradicated or judicially dismissed following probation; or an employer is prohibited by law from hiring an applicant who has been convicted of a crime.

Montgomery County, MD Amended Law effective 2/19/21YesNo• The amendment prohibits at AMY time. requiring an applicant to disclose any: o arrests not resulting in a convictionEmployers Covered: (1) private employers with 1 or more employees in the County, (2) Montgomery County Government.• If the amendment prohibits at AMY time. is a conviction for: • The amendment prohibits at AMY time. conviction for: • The amendment prohibits at AMY time. conviction • If the amendment prohibits at AMY time. • arrests not resulting in a conviction for: • The amendment prohibits at AMY time. • If the amendment prohibits at AMY time. • arrests not resulting in a conviction for: • The amendment prohibits at AMY time. • The amendment prohibits at AMY time. • If the amendment prohibits are not in response to any • If the amendment and the are not in response to any • If the amendment and the are not in the applicants and that are not in response to any • If the amendment the any. • If the amendment the any. • If the amendment			r		[]
Control Law		Yes	Yes	No	ine unenament promotes at mite
Amended Law effective 2/19/21       • first time conviction for:         Employers       • first time conviction for:         Covered: (1) private employers with 1 or more employees in the County, (2)       • first time conviction for:         Montgomery County Government.       • Disturbance of the peace.         Bill No. 35-20       • Assault in the second.         Bill No. 35-20       • End of the conviction; and         • the date of the conviction; and       • the date of the conviction; and         • the date of the conviction; and       • the date of the conviction; and         • the date of the conviction; and       • the date of the conviction; and         • the date of the conviction; and       • the date of the conviction; and         • the date of the conviction; and       • the date of the conviction; and         • the date of the conviction; and       • the date of the conviction; and         • the date of the conviction; and       • the date of the conviction; and         • the date of the conviction; and       • the date of the conviction; and         • the date of the conviction; and       • the date of the conviction; and         • the date of the conviction; and       • the date of the conviction; and         • the date of the conviction; and       • the date of the conviction; and         • This Amendment does not prohibit       • the date of the conviction or arrest r	County, MD
effective 2/19/21 Employers Covered: (1) private employers with 1 or more employees in the County, (2) Montgomery County Government. Bill No. 35-20 Bill No.	Amended Law
Employers Covered: (1) private employers with 1 or more employees in the County, (2) Montgomery County Government. <ul> <li>Disturbance of the peace. (under Section 10: 201 of the County, (2)</li> <li>Disturbance of the maryland Code): or the County Government.</li> <li>Bill No. 35-20</li> <li>conviction of a misdemeanor if at least three years have passed. since: the date of the conviction: and</li> <li>the date of the conviction of assert records (Sections 10- 101-1010 of the Criminal Procedure Article of the Maryland Code)</li> <li>This Amendment does not prohibit employerers from discussing conviction or arrest records (Section or arrest records (Section or arrest records (Sections 10- 101-1010 of the Criminal Procedure Article of the Maryland Code)</li> </ul>
Employers       6-402 or 6-403 of the Covered: (1) private employers with 1 or more employees in the County, (2) Montgomery County Government.       • Disturbance of the peace funder Section 10-201 of the Criminal Law Article of the Maryland Code): or the Criminal Law Article of the Maryland Code): or A Assault in the second degree (under Section 10-201 of the Criminal Law Article of the Maryland Code):         Bill No. 35-20       • Conviction of a misdemeanor if at least three years have passed since: • the date of the conviction: and • the date that any period of incarceration for the misdemeanor ended • confidential records (under Section 10- incarceration for the misdemeanor ended • confidential records (under Section 3-38-27 of the Courts and Judicial Proceedings Article of the Maryland Code) • This Amendment does not prohibit employers from discussing conviction or arrest records that are voluntarily disclosed by applicants and that are not in response to employer inquires.	01000110 =, 13, =1
Covered: (1) private employers with 1 or more employers in the County, (2) Montgomery County Government. <ul> <li>Disturbance of the peace. (under Section 10-201 of the Criminal Law Article of the Maryland Code): or</li> <li>Assault in the second degree (under Section 3: 203 of the Criminal Law. Article of the Maryland Code):</li> <li>Conviction of a misdemeanor if at least three years have passed since:</li> <li>the date of the conviction: and</li> <li>the date of the conviction: and</li> <li>the date the conviction: and</li> <li>the date of the conviction: and</li> <li>the date the conviction of and degree conviction of incarceration for the misdemeanor ended</li> <li>confidential records (under Section 3:38-27) of the Courts and Judicial. Proceedings Article of the Maryland Code.)</li> <li>expunged records (Sections 10: 101:10:110 of the Criminal. Proceedings Article of the Maryland Code.)</li> </ul> •         This Amendment does not prohibit employers from discussing conviction or arrest records that are voluntarily disclosed by applicants and that are not in response to employer in covered by an	Employers employers with 1 or more employees in the County, (2) Montgomery County Government.       • Disturbance of the peace. (under Section 10-201 of the Criminal Law Article of the Maryland Code): or > Assault in the second. degree (under Section 3: 203 of the Criminal Law Article of the Maryland Code):         Bill No. 35-20       • conviction of a misdemeanor if at least three years have passed. since: • the date of the conviction; and         • the date of the conviction; and       • the date of the conviction; and         • the date of the conviction; and       • the date of the conviction; and         • the date of the conviction; and       • the date of the conviction; and         • the date of the conviction; and       • the date of the misdemeanor ended         • confidential records (under Section 3-58-27 Othe Courts and Judicial) Proceedings Article of the Maryland Code)       • expunged records (Sections 10- 101-10-110 of the Criminal Procedure Article of the Maryland Code)         • This Amendment does not prohibit employers from discussing conviction or arrest records that are voluntarity disclosed by applicants and that are not in response to employer inquiries.
<ul> <li>Disturbance of the peace (under Section 10-201 of the Criminal Law Article of the Maryland Code). or or Assault in the second degree (under Section 3-203 of the Criminal Law Article of the Maryland Code).</li> <li>Bill No. 35-20</li> <li>Bill No. 35-20</li> <li>Bill No. 35-20</li> <li>Conviction of a misdemeanor if at least three years have passed since:         <ul> <li>the date of the conviction: and</li> <li>the date that any period of incarceration for the misdemeanor ended</li> <li>confidential records funder Section 10-201 of the Criminal Law Article of the Maryland Code).</li> <li>the date of the conviction: and</li> <li>the date that any period of incarceration for the misdemeanor ended</li> <li>confidential records funder Section 10-201 of the Maryland Code).</li> <li>expunged records (Sections 10-101-110 of the Criminal Proceedings Article of the Maryland Code)</li> <li>This Amendment does not prohibit employers from discussing conviction or arrest records that are voluntarily disclosed by applicants and that are not in response to employer inquiries.</li> <li>Does not apply if employer is covered by an</li> </ul> </li> </ul> the County, (2) Montgomery County Government. Bill No. 35-20 Bill No. 35-20 Bill No. 35-20 Conviction of a misdemeanor if at least three years have passed since: • the date of the conviction: and • the date of the conviction: • the date of the conviction: • conviction of arrest records (Sections 10- 101-10-110 of the Criminal Procedure Article of the Maryland Code! • This Amendment does not prohibit employers from discussing conviction or arrest records that are voluntarily disclosed. by applicants and that are not in response to employer inquiries. • Does not apply if employer is covered by an Montgomery County Government. Bill No. 35-20 Bill N
Government. Bill No. 35-20 Bill No. 35-20 Covernment. Bill No. 35-20
Bill No. 35-20 Bill N
Bill No. 35-20          degree (under Section 3- 203 of the Criminal Law. Article of the Maryland. Code):          or conviction of a misdemeanor if at least three years have passed. since: <ul> <li>the date of the conviction: and</li> <li>the date of the conviction: ended</li> <li>the date that any period of incarceration for the misdemeanor ended</li> <li>confidential records (under Section 3-8A-27 of the Courts and Judicial Proceedings Article of the. Maryland Code.)</li> <li>expunged records (Sections 10- 101-10-110 of the Criminal. Procedure Article of the Maryland. Code)</li> <li>This Amendment does not prohibit. employers from discussing conviction or arrest records that are voluntarily disclosed by applicants and that are not in response to employer is covered by an.</li> </ul>	dovernment.
203 of the Criminal Law Article of the Maryland Code): • conviction of a misdemeanor if at least three years have passed since: • the date of the conviction: and • the date of the conviction: and • the date of the conviction: and • the date that any period of incarceration for the misdemeanor ended • confidential records (under Section 3-8A-27 of the Courts and Judicial Proceedings Article of the Maryland Code) • expunged records (Sections 10- 101-10-110 of the Criminal Proceedings Article of the Maryland Code) • This Amendment does not prohibit employers from discussing conviction or arrest records that are not in response to employer inquiries. • Does not apply if employer is covered by an	Bill No. 35-20
Article of the Maryland Code): • conviction of a misdemeanor if at least three years have passed. since: • the date of the conviction: and • the date that any period of. incarceration for the misdemeanor ended • confidential records (under Section 3:8A-27 of the Courts and Iudicial Proceedings Article of the Maryland Code) • expunged records (Sections 10- 101-10-110 of the Criminal Procedure Article of the Maryland Code) • This Amendment does not prohibit employers from discussing conviction or arrest records that are voluntarily disclosed. by applicants and that are not in response to employer inquiries. • Does not apply if employer is covered by an	DIII NO. 33-20
<ul> <li>conviction of a misdemeanor if at least three years have passed since:         <ul> <li>the date of the conviction: and</li> <li>the date that any period of incarceration for the misdemeanor ended</li> <li>the date that any period of the control of the misdemeanor ended</li> <li>confidential records (under Section 3-8A-27 of the Courts and Judicial Proceedings Article of the. Maryland Code)</li> <li>expunged records (Sections 10-101-10-110 of the Criminal Procedure Article of the Maryland Code)</li> <li>This Amendment does not prohibit employers from discussing conviction or arrest records that are voluntarily disclosed by applicants and that are not in response to employer inquiries.</li> <li>Does not apply if employer is covered by an</li> </ul> </li> </ul>					Article of the Maryland since:       • the date of the conviction:         and       • the date of the conviction:         and       • the date that any period of         incarceration for the misdemeanor       ended         • confidential records (under Section         3-8A-27 of the Courts and Judicial         Proceedings Article of the         Maryland Code )         • expunged records (Sections 10-         101-10-110 of the Criminal         Proceedure Article of the Maryland         Code)         • This Amendment does not prohibit.         employers from discussing conviction or.         arrest records that are voluntarily disclosed         by applicants and that are not in response to         employer inquiries.         • Does not apply if employer is covered by an
Image: Second
<ul> <li>the date of the conviction: and</li> <li>the date that any period of incarceration for the misdemeanor ended</li> <li>confidential records (under Section 3-8A-27 of the Courts and Judicial Proceedings Article of the Maryland Code.)</li> <li>expunged records (Sections 10- 101-10-110 of the Criminal Procedure Article of the Maryland Code)</li> <li>This Amendment does not prohibit employers from discussing conviction or arrest records that are voluntarily disclosed by applicants and that are not in response to employer inquiries.</li> <li>Does not apply if employer is covered by an</li> </ul>					least three years have passed and • the date that any period of incarceration for the misdemeanor ended • confidential records (under Section 3-8A-27 of the Courts and Judicial Proceedings Article of the Maryland Code) • expunged records (Sections 10- 101-10-110 of the Criminal Procedure Article of the Maryland Code) • This Amendment does not prohibit employers from discussing conviction or arrest records that are voluntarily disclosed by applicants and that are not in response to employer inquiries. • Does not apply if employer is covered by an <ul> <li>the date that any period of incarceration for the misdemeanor ended</li> <li>confidential records (under Section 3-8A-27 of the Courts and Judicial Proceedings Article of the Maryland Code)</li> <li>expunged records (Sections 10-101-10-110 of the Criminal Procedure Article of the Maryland Code)</li> <li>This Amendment does not prohibit employers from discussing conviction or arrest records that are voluntarily disclosed by applicants and that are not in response to employer inquiries.</li> <li>Does not apply if employer is covered by an</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>incarceration for the misdemeanor ended</li> <li>confidential records (under Section 3-8A-27 of the Courts and Judicial Proceedings Article of the Maryland Code.)</li> <li>expunged records (Sections 10- 101-10-110 of the Criminal Procedure Article of the Maryland Code)</li> <li>This Amendment does not prohibit employers from discussing conviction or arrest records that are voluntarily disclosed by applicants and that are not in response to employer inquiries.</li> <li>Does not apply if employer is covered by an</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>ended</li> <li>confidential records (under Section 3-8A-27 of the Courts and Judicial Proceedings Article of the Maryland Code.)</li> <li>expunged records (Sections 10- 101-10-110 of the Criminal Procedure Article of the Maryland Code)</li> <li>This Amendment does not prohibit. employers from discussing conviction or arrest records that are voluntarily disclosed by applicants and that are not in response to employer inquiries.</li> <li>Does not apply if employer is covered by an</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>confidential records (under Section 3-8A-27 of the Courts and Judicial Proceedings Article of the Maryland Code)</li> <li>expunged records (Sections 10- 101-10-110 of the Criminal Procedure Article of the Maryland Code)</li> <li>This Amendment does not prohibit. employers from discussing conviction or arrest records that are voluntarily disclosed by applicants and that are not in response to employer inquiries.</li> <li>Does not apply if employer is covered by an</li> </ul>
3-8A-27 of the Courts and Judicial         Proceedings Article of the.         Maryland Code )         o       expunged records (Sections 10-         101-10-110 of the Criminal         Procedure Article of the Maryland         Code)         • <td< th=""><th></th><th></th><th></th><th></th><th></th></td<>
<ul> <li>Proceedings Article of the Maryland Code.)</li> <li>expunged records (Sections 10- 101-10-110 of the Criminal Procedure Article of the Maryland Code)</li> <li>This Amendment does not prohibit employers from discussing conviction or arrest records that are voluntarily disclosed by applicants and that are not in response to employer inquiries.</li> <li>Does not apply if employer is covered by an</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Maryland Code.)</li> <li>expunged records (Sections 10- 101-10-110 of the Criminal Procedure Article of the Maryland Code.)</li> <li>This Amendment does not prohibit employers from discussing conviction or arrest records that are voluntarily disclosed by applicants and that are not in response to employer inquiries.</li> <li>Does not apply if employer is covered by an</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>expunged records (Sections 10- 101-10-110 of the Criminal Procedure Article of the Maryland Code)</li> <li>This Amendment does not prohibit employers from discussing conviction or arrest records that are voluntarily disclosed by applicants and that are not in response to employer inquiries.</li> <li>Does not apply if employer is covered by an</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>101-10-110 of the Criminal Procedure Article of the Maryland Code)</li> <li>This Amendment does not prohibit employers from discussing conviction or arrest records that are voluntarily disclosed by applicants and that are not in response to employer inquiries.</li> <li>Does not apply if employer is covered by an</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Procedure Article of the Maryland Code)</li> <li>This Amendment does not prohibit employers from discussing conviction or arrest records that are voluntarily disclosed by applicants and that are not in response to employer inquiries.</li> <li>Does not apply if employer is covered by an</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>Code)</li> <li>This Amendment does not prohibit employers from discussing conviction or arrest records that are voluntarily disclosed by applicants and that are not in response to employer inquiries.</li> <li>Does not apply if employer is covered by an</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>This Amendment does not prohibit. employers from discussing conviction or arrest records that are voluntarily disclosed by applicants and that are not in response to employer inquiries.</li> <li>Does not apply if employer is covered by an</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>employers from discussing conviction or arrest records that are voluntarily disclosed by applicants and that are not in response to employer inquiries.</li> <li>Does not apply if employer is covered by an</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>arrest records that are voluntarily disclosed by applicants and that are not in response to employer inquiries.</li> <li>Does not apply if employer is covered by an</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>by applicants and that are not in response to employer inquiries.</li> <li>Does not apply if employer is covered by an</li> </ul>
<ul> <li>employer inquiries.</li> <li>Does not apply if employer is covered by an</li> </ul> applicable exemption under the law.
					applicable exemption under the law.

Counties/Cities with Ban the Box Restrictions	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Inquire about Criminal History?	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Perform a Background Check?	Are Inquiries and/or Background Checks Permissible Prior to a Conditional Offer Being Made?	Preemption and/or Other Notable Nuance
New York City, NY Employers Covered: Employers with at least four employees Law Number: 2015/063	Yes	Yes	No	The Fair Chance Act does not apply to any criminal history inquiries or adverse actions taken by an employer pursuant to any state, federal or local law that requires criminal background checks for employment purposes or bars employment based on criminal history. NOTE: Specific information pertaining to the disqualifying criminal history must be included in the pre-adverse and adverse notification letters. A NYC Form Analysis must be included with the pre-adverse notification letter.
Philadelphia, PA Employers Covered: All employers Amended Chapter 9- 3500 of The Philadelphia Code - Fair Criminal Record Screening Standards	Yes ("conditional offer of employment" means an offer by an employer to hire an applicant, which may be withdrawn only if the employer subsequently determines that the applicant (i) has a convictionrecord which, based on an individualized assessment, would reasonably lead an employer to conclude that the applicant would pose an unacceptable risk in the position applied for; or (ii) does not meet other legal or physical requirements of the job)	Yes	No	The Ordinance's restrictions may not apply when employers are mandated by state or federallaw to consider certain criminal histories of applicants. However, even wheresuch mandates exist, most employers will be able to comply with both Ban the Box and the state or federal law by waiting until after the first interview to make criminal history inquiries; unless the state or federal law specifically requires that the inquiry be made on the employment application or during the first interview, employers are required to comply with Ban the Box. NOTE: Specific information pertaining to the disqualifying criminal history must be included in the pre-adverse and adverse notification letters.

Counties/Cities with Ban the Box Restrictions	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Inquire about Criminal History?	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Perform a Background Check?	Are Inquiries and/or Background Checks Permissible Prior to a Conditional Offer Being Made?	Preemption and/or OtherNotable Nuance
Portland, OR Employers Covered: Employers with at least six employees 187795 Administrative Rules for Chapter 23.10	Yes ("conditional offer of employment" means any offer for a position that is conditioned solely on: The results of an employer's inquiry into or gathering of information about a person's arrest or conviction history; and/or some other contingency expressly communicated to the applicant at the time of the offer)	Yes	No	The Ordinance does not apply where a federal, state or local law or regulation requires or authorizes the consideration of a person's criminal history, including but not limited to employees who are required to be licensed, registered, or certified by the State of Oregon. NOTE: Specific information pertaining to the disqualifying criminal history must be included in the adverse notification letter.
Prince George's County, MD Employers Covered: Employers who have at least 25 employees in the County CB-78-2014	No	No	Yes (after conclusion of the first interview)	There is an exception for employers that are required to exclude applicants with certain criminal convictions from employment due to local, state or federal law or regulation. NOTE: Specific information pertaining to the disqualifying criminal history must be included in the pre-adverse and adverse notification letters.
Rochester, NY Employers Covered: Private employers located within the City of Rochester with four or more employees and any City vendors, contractors or suppliers (including those located outside city limits) Chapter 63, Article II Municipal Code	Yes (if the applicant will not be interviewed)	Yes (if the applicant will not be interviewed)	Yes (after an initial interview)	Employers are prohibited from asking prospective employees about their criminal conviction history during the application process and prior to the first interview. Employers may ask about convictions or violations if such convictions or violations would pose a bar to attaining employment under New York state or federal law.

Version 20 -4/2021

This information is not meant to provide legal advice of any kind. Legal advice should be sought from your attorney or corporate counsel.

Counties/Cities with Ban the Box Restrictions	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Inquire about Criminal History?	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Perform a Background Check?	Are Inquiries and/or Background Checks Permissible Prior to a Conditional Offer Being Made?	Preemption and/or OtherNotable Nuance
San Francisco, CA Employers Covered: Private employers with at leastfive employees Ordinance No.54-18	Yes	Yes	No	Employers may only make criminal history inquiries after a conditional offer of employment. Where federal or state law imposes a criminal history requirement that conflicts with a requirement of the Fair Chance Ordinance, the federal or state law will apply. Allows for a private right of action. NOTE: Specific information pertaining to the disqualifying criminal history must be included in the pre-adverse and adverse notification letters.
Seattle, WA Employers Covered: Anyone who performs any services for an employer, when the physical location of such services is inat least substantial part (at least 50% of the time) within the City Fair Chance Employment (Ordinance 124201, Council Bill 117796)	No	No	Yes (after identification of qualified applicants)	An employer may perform a criminal background check on a job applicant or require a job applicant to provide criminal history information, but only after the employer has completed an initial screening of applications or resumes to eliminate unqualified applicants. NOTE: Specific information pertaining to the disqualifying criminal history must be included in the pre-adverse and adverse notification letters.
Spokane, WA (6/2018; Fines imposed 1/1/2019) Includes temporary or seasonal work, contracted work and work through the services of a temporary or other employment agency, whether offered with or without pay. Only applies to those applying for positions in the Spokane city limits.	No	No		The Ordinance does not apply where criminal background checks are specifically permitted or required under state or federal law. The Ordinance also does not apply to any employer hiring an employee who will have unsupervised access tochildren under the age of 18, a vulnerable adult, or a vulnerable person.

Counties/Cities with Ban the Box Restrictions	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Inquire about Criminal History?	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Perform a Background Check?	Are Inquiries and/or Background Checks Permissible Prior to a Conditional Offer Being Made?	Preemption and/or OtherNotable Nuance
St. Louis, MO Employers covered: (1) located with the City of St. Louis, (2) with 10 or more employees as of 1/1/2021 Board Bill Number 120	No	No	Yes	<ul> <li>Employers may not do any of the following:</li> <li>Base ahiring or promotional decision on a job applicant's criminal history or sentence, unless (1) the history is reasonably related to or bears upon the duties and responsibilities of the job position, and (2) the employer can demonstrate that the decision is based on all available information including frequency, recentness, and severity of the criminal history.</li> <li>Inquire about an applicant's criminal history, until after an applicant (1) is determined to be otherwise qualified, and (2) has been interviewed for the position except such an inquiry may be made of all applicants in the final selection pool from which the position will be filled.</li> <li>Publish job advertisements or put forth any job application that includes statements excluding applicants to make disclosures about their criminal history on an initial job application form or seek out publicly available information about an applicant's criminal history.</li> <li>The items above would not apply where the employer is required by law or regulation to exclude applicants with certain criminal convictions.</li> </ul>
Suffolk County, NY Employers Covered: 15 or more employees Fair Employment Screening Amendment Effectiveon orabout August 25, 2020	No	No	Yes, until after the first interview	<ul> <li>In addition to traditional employment, the Amendment applies to vocation or educational training.</li> <li>if the position requires the applicant to be licensed in a trade or profession, the employer may ask any questions that would be asked by the trade or licensing body.</li> <li>The Amendment will not apply to governmental law enforcement, schools, service agencies providing direct care or supervision to children, young adults, senior citizens, or individuals with physical or developmental disabilities, or any otherposition to which employment is barred by another law.</li> </ul>

Counties/Cities with Ban the Box Restrictions	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Inquire about Criminal History?	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Perform a Background Check?	Are Inquiries and/or Background Checks Permissible Priortoa Conditional Offer Being Made?	Preemption and/or OtherNotable Nuance
Waterloo, IA Employers Covered: Employers Covered: Any person, partnership, company, corporation, labor organization or association which regularly employs fifteen (15) or more persons within the City of Waterloo, including the City of Waterloo, its departments, boards, commissions and agencies.	Yes	Yes	No	In connection with the employment of any person, it shall bean unlawful discriminatory practice for an employer to engage in any of the following activity To make any inquiry regarding, or to require any person to disclose or reveal, any convictions, arrests, or pending criminal charges during the application process, including but not limited to any interview. The application process shall begin when the applicant inquires about the employment being sought and shall end when an employer has extended a conditional offer of employment to the applicant. If the applicant voluntarily discloses any information regarding his or her criminal record at the interview, the employer may discuss the criminal record disclosed by the applicant.
Westchester County, NY Employers Covered: Employers with at leastfour employees Fair Chanceto Work Effectiveon orabout March 3, 2019	No	No	Yes [after completion of initial application]	The law does not apply to applications for employment as a police officer, peace officer, orata law enforcement agency, as statutorily defined and referenced in the law. The law also does not apply to "any actions taken by an employer pursuant to any state, federal or County law that requires criminal background checks for employment purposes or bars employment based on criminal history.

Cities with Ban the Box Restrictions (Applicable ONLY to City Vendors)

Cities with Ban the Box Restrictions (Applicable ONLY to City Vendors)	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Inquire about Criminal History?	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Perform a Background Check?	Are Inquiries and/or Background Checks Permissible Priortoa Conditional Offer Being Made?	Preemption and/or OtherNotable Nuance
Boston, MA CBC Chapter IV amended with appending CBC 4-7	No	No	Yes (after identification of qualified applicants)	Vendors are expected to adhere to the practices of the City. The City of Boston does not conduct a background check on an applicant unless it is required by law or the City has made a good faith determination that the relevant position is of such sensitivity that a background check is warranted.
Cambridge MA Ordinance Number 1312	No	No	Yes (after identification of qualified applicants)	Vendors are expected to adhere to the practices of the City.
Compton, CA Resolution 23293	Yes	Yes	No	Vendors are expected to adhere to the practices of the City.
Detroit, MI CH 13, Article 1, Division 3, Sec 13-1- 11 - 13-1-14	No	No	Yes (after an applicant is interviewed or is found to be qualified for employment)	No
Hartford ,CT Article XIII, Section 2-785-2-793	Yes	Yes	No	Vendors are expected to adhere to the practices of the City. The City of Hartford does not conduct a criminal record check on an Applicant unless such a check is required by state or federal law or the City has made a good faith determination that the relevant position is of such sensitivity that a criminal record check is warranted.
Kalamazoo, MI Background Information	No	No	Yes (no criminal history inquiries are allowed on an employment application)	No

Cities with Ban the Box Restrictions (Applicable ONLY to City Vendors)

Cities with Ban the Box Restrictions (Applicable ONLY to City Vendors)	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Inquire about Criminal History?	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Perform a Background Check?	Are Inquiries and/or Background Checks Permissible Priortoa Conditional Offer Being Made?	Preemption and/or OtherNotable Nuance
Louisville, KY Ordinance 046, Series 2014	No	No	Yes (after an applicant is found to be qualified for employment)	The City shall inquire about an applicant's conviction history before a conditional offer of employment if: a) Employment involves the transfer and handling of cash amounts inexcess of$500 or that involve major fiduciary responsibilities (e.g employees charged with investing Cityfunds, accounting, auditing, etc.). b) Employment involves access to confidential information, including but not limited to, social security numbers, bank account information, credit card information, or other combination of information that could be used for identity theft or related criminal activity.
Madison, WI Sec. 39.08, Madison General Ordinances - Contractors	Yes	Yes	No	No
New Haven, CT Ordinance	Yes	Yes	No	Vendors are expected to adhere to the practices of the City.
Pittsburgh, PA Pittsburgh Code of Ordinances. Title One Administrative, Article XI, Personnel, Ch. 181	No	No	Yes (no criminal history inquiries are allowed on an employment application)	Vendors are expected to adhere to the practices of the City.
Richmond, CA Ordinance No. 14-13 N. S.	Yes	Yes	No	The Ordinance prohibits inquiry into an applicant's criminal history atanytime unless a background investigation is required by state or federal law or the position has been defined as "sensitive.'
Sacramento, CA (1/2017) Ordinance Adding Chapter 3.62 to, and amending Section 2.40.050 of the Sacramento City Code	No	No	Yes (no criminal history inquiries are allowed on an employment application)	The Ordinance applies to contracts of $100,000 and provides an exception for supply contracts and positions that are otherwise required by law to conduct criminal conviction history background checks.

Version 20 – 4/2021 This information is not meant to provide legal advice of any kind. Legal advice should be sought from your attorney or corporate counsel.

Cities with Ban the Box Restrictions (Applicable ONLY to City Vendors)

Cities with Ban the Box Restrictions (Applicable ONLY to City Vendors)	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Inquire about Criminal History?	Is a Conditional Offer Required to Perform a Background Check?	Are Inquiries and/or Background Checks Permissible Priortoa Conditional Offer Being Made?	Preemption and/or OtherNotable Nuance
Syracuse, NY Chapter 53 of Revised General Ordinances	Yes	Yes	No	Vendors are expected to adhere to the practices of the City.
Worcester, MA City Ordinances § 37. Fair CORI Practices	Yes	Yes	No	Vendors are expected to adhere to the practices of the City. The City of Worcester does not conduct a background check on an applicant unless it is required by law or the City has made a good faith determination that therelevant position is of such sensitivity that a background check is warranted.